

FUTURISTS

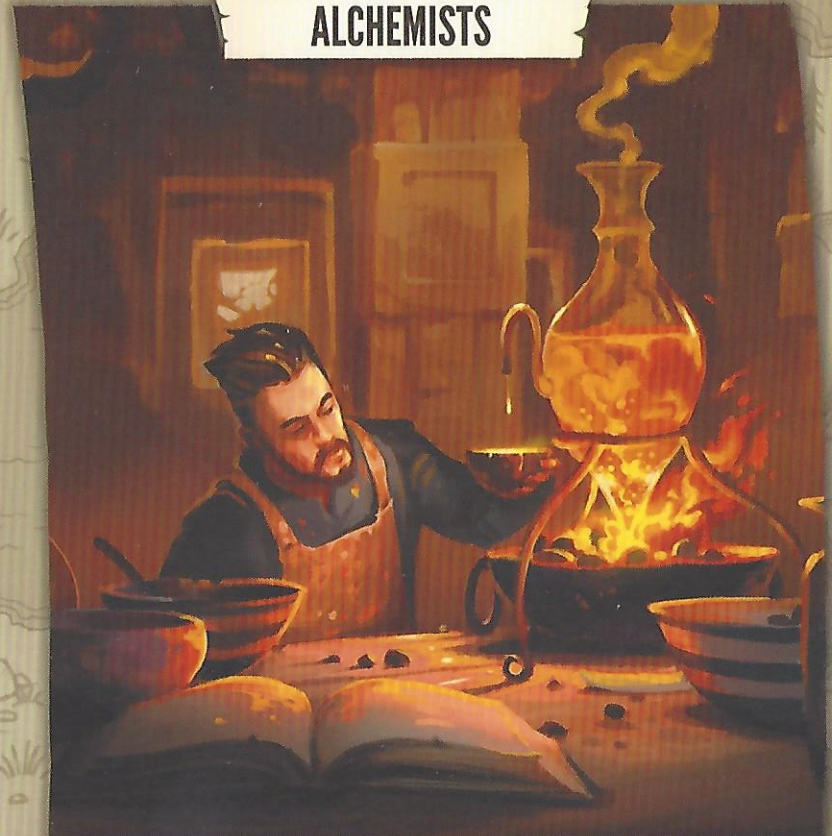

A diagram showing a futuristic interface. On the left, a yellow circle is connected by a curved arrow to a grid of six grey circles. The grid is divided into two sections of three circles each, with a small grey rectangle above each section. To the right of the grid is a plus sign followed by four icons: a yellow sack, a grey helmet, a red star, and a brown mushroom. Below this diagram is a large white rectangular area containing the following text:
